Dear Dutch,

Just got back to Washington after a side trip following the visit in St. Louis. I intended to write you and thank you for your great courtesy in taking an evening to hear an old buddy say the same old things. I am most appreciative of your support.

I've turned the troops loose on your proposal for a liaison element. Don't know what I can promise at the moment. I hope we can work something out; I'll try.

In the meantime, thanks very much again. It was certainly great to see you.

Yours,
